Legislative Journal.

Session 1931 — 129th of the General Assembly

Vol. 12 — HARRISBURG, PA., THURSDAY, MAY 21, 1931 — No. 52

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

THURSDAY, May 21, 1931.

The House met at 11.00 o'clock A. M.
The SPEAKER (C. J. Goodnough) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Rev. Dr. George P. Donehoo (a former Chaplain of the House), offered the following prayer:

Our Heavenly Father, we thank Thee this morning for the glorious promise of springtime and summer. After the cold storms of winter, the time of flowers, the development of everything in nature has again come; so may it be with us and with this world in these times of trial and of stress. Help us to realize that we are living in a crisis in the world. Help us to keep our feet on the ground and our hearts upturned toward the skies. Help us to do everything we can do unselfishly to bring the springtime again to a world distressed and disheartened, having lost its faith in not only the directing power of God, but having lost faith in each other. May we come back to realizing ,however much we may differ with each other concerning things that are vital, nevertheless, that we are all brethren, that sorrow and hardship means the same to every heart, regardless of creed or faith or political affiliation, and so may we work together to bring back again God's springtime to human hearts. May Thy blessing be upon this House, upon the Speaker, upon all of these employes, and upon those whom we love everywhere. We thank Thee for the hallowed friendships of life, and for the love of life and for life itself with all of its privileges Bless us now, we ask in Thy name. Amen.

RESOLUTION

Mr. McALEE offered the following resolution which was twice read and laid over for printing under the rules:

In the House of Representatives, May 20, 1931.

Whereas, the federal officials at Washington have admitted there are over six million people out of employment in America today, and

Whereas, There are beyond any reason of doubt several million more people who are only able to secure employment on part time in America today, and

Whereas, The federal officials at Washington claim that there are at least one hundred thousand alien seamen alone that are illegally living in America, and

Whereas, The federal officials at Washington claim there are besides the one hundred thousand alien seamen at last three to four hundred thousand more aliens who illegally entered the United States, and

Whereas, The nearly one half million aliens claimed by federal officials to have entered United States illegally are either directly or indirectly adding to the burdens of both municipalities and citizens committees on unemployment throughout the State and Nation that are now endeavoring to appropriate or raise money to relieve the increasing distress of unemployment, and

Whereas, There is no question in the minds of thinking American citizens that there are some aliens who have entered United States illegally are adding to the burden of the cost of crime throughout the entire country, and

Whereas, Nearly every European country long ago in the defense of the unemployed of their country and to put a stop of alien criminals entering and adding to their burden and cost of crime, passed laws calling for the registration of both native and foreign born citizens, and

Whereas, United States with its many miles of coast and border lines without a large army of immigration and custom employees at a prohibitive cost to the tax payers are not able to stop or arrest both good and bad aliens from entering America illegally, and

Whereas, The present and future distress of unemployment can be given relief by the government deporting all aliens that have or will enter United States illegally, therefore be it

Resolved, That it is the concensus of opinion of the members of the House of Representatives of Pennsylvania that both House of Congress at Washington should, when they meet in December one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one, enact legislation that will provide for the registration of both Americans and aliens in United States, and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of Labor at Washington be requested to prepare all data and information as to the cost that may be necessary for the information of Congress to enact the proposed national registration law, when they meet in December one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives be instructed to send copies of this resolution to the presiding officers of both Houses of Congress at Washington, District of Columbia, with the request that they have the resolution read and then refer the resolution to the proper committee for their consideration; also a copy to each member of the congress of the United States from this Commonwealth with the request that they work and vote to enact this proposed national registration law; also mail copies to the Secretary of Labor, Secretary of State and the President for their information

RESOLUTION No. 48

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 48, Printer's No. 904.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 6, 1931.

Whereas, The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania stands alone as the only State which either by legislative enactment or by the action of some other official body therein has not adopted a State flower and

Whereas, During Session after Session of the General Assembly bills have been introduced designating an official flower but have failed of passage because of the difference of opinion of the Members thereon and

Whereas, No effort has been made to ascertain the choice of the people of the Commonwealth as to the flower which in their opinion should be selected as the official flower of the Commonwealth therefore be it

Resolved, That a State Flower Commission shall be appointed consisting of five Members of the House of Representatives to be appointed by the Speaker of the House whose duty it shall be conduct an inquiry to determine the choice of the citizens of the Commonwealth of a flower to be adopted as the official flower of the Commonwealth and be it further

Resolved, That the Department of Public Instruction or the Commonwealth shall cooperate with the commission appointed under the provisions of this resolution in order to obtain an expression from the pupils of the public schools of the Commonwealth as to the flower of their choice and be it further

Resolved That the commission hereby created shall report to the House of Representatives at the next Session of the Legislature not later than the fifteenth day of March one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three and shall accompany such report with the draft of a bill naming the flower determined upon by such commission as the choice of the people of the Commonwealth for designation as the official flower of the Commonwealth

On the question.

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. THOMAS J. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Education for the purpose of further consideration.

Mr. NOTHNAGLE. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Brown.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Brown, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. THOMAS J. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, what is the purpose of recommitting this bill at this time?

Mr. THOMAS J. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, the reason for this motion, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, was that it was under agreement of the Committee, that it would be reported out and be sent back again for further consideration.

Mr. BEYERS. Mr. Speaker, I had considerable difficulty in getting this bill out of Committee, even after having had a somewhat fair hearing given to those who sponsored this proposition embodied in this bill. I did promise that I would agree on second reading of this bill to have it go back to the Committee. It only came out last night, and here it is on the calendar and here is a motion to send it back on first reading. I think, in fairness to me, at least, on the request that I made that it should not go back until after second reading, that that agreement should hold good.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, I want to say that the Committee on Education wishes this bill back in Committee. We sent it out with the distinct understanding that we should have it back. We wish it back. We think it necessary that it should come back, and I ask the House, as one of its chairmen, to whom you have committed these paritcular things, to send this bill back to the committee.

The SPEAKER. Are there objections to having the bill passed on second reading?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, it is perfectly satisfactory to pass it on second reading.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman from Lancaster withdraw his motion until after the bill has passed on second reading.

Mr. THOMAS J. BROWN. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

"Thou Eternal and Omnipresent God, the One in whom we live and move and have our being, we heed the advice of the poet who said:

"Speak to Him, thou, for He hears thee
And Spirit with Spirit can meet.
Closer is He than breathing,
And nearer than hands or feet."

We thank Thee Thou dost take a loving, fatherly interest in us, and art ever seeking to promote our highest welfare.

May we recognize the wisdom of earnestly seeking Thy counsel, and of heeding it in the discharge of our duties.

VETO OF SENATE BILL NO. 103

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, May 20, 1931.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 103, Printer's No. 250, entitled, "An act regulating the bringing of suits between citizens of this Commonwealth."

This bill would forbid any citizen of the Commonwealth to sue another citizen of the Commonwealth in any Court, except the State Courts of Pennsylvania, in any controversies arising within the State and in which service can be had on the defendant within the State. It excludes from its provisions, nowever, controversies involving possession or title to real estate. The bill further gives Courts of equity express jurisdiction to enjoin citizens from prosecuting any action in a foreign state, contrary to the provisions of the act.

The bill is unwise in policy and would be unconstitutional in its application. It would forbid suits in the Federal Courts between ctizens of Pennsylvania, except where title or possession of real estate was in question. The Constitution and laws of the United States give citizens of the various states rights to bring certain civil actions in the Federal Courts. No state can, in any way, limit the jurisdiction thus given to the Federal Courts. Therefore, the bill would be utterly inoperative insofar as it would attempt to restrict proceedings in the Court of the United States.

The attempt of the bill to prevent proceedings in the Courts of other states would be unwise even if it could be sustained constitutionally. The Courts of the other state would not be bound to recognize the statute of Pennsylvania, and could, therefore, entertain the suits which this bill would prohibit There are many cases in which the plaintiff can have no remedy within the Commonwealth. If he can obtain a legitimate remedy in another state, he should be entitled to it. The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania should not deprive its citizens of any rights which another state is willing to afford to them.

Courts of equity already have jurisdiction to restrain citizens from prosecuting in foreign states suits that are instituted in such manner as to be frauds on the rights of the defendant or upon the laws of this Commonwealth. This affords ample protection to honest defendants.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

VETO OF SENATE BILL NO. 269

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, May 21, 1931.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 269, Printer's No. 343, entitled "An act to amend section twenty-two of the act approved the fourteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred ten) entitled "An act allowing and regulating boxing sparring and wrestling matches and exhibitions establishing a State Athletic Commission making an appropriation therefor and appropriating moneys received for monument and memorial purposes and prescribing penalties' by providing for the return of the price of admission when a principal match ends in a foul."

This bill will permit the referee to order the remuneration or purse belonging to the contestants to be held pending the outcome of another boxing match between the same contestants where a match terminates in a foul or where the referee declares it unsatisfactory or disqualifies either participant for any reason. It would require in the event that another match is not held between the same contestants within two months subsequent to the original match, that the purse be paid into the State Treasury.

There are several objections to this bill.

First. It would work a hardship upon a contestant, who is doing his best, to make him box a second time without compensation.

Second. It would be a great advantage to the promoter to be permitted to stage another bout without any additional cost. He would benefit by having a bout end unsatisfactorily.

Third. The bill is unnecessary. The Athletic Commission now has ample authority to deal with the situations to which it applies. Only one bout of importance held in Pennsylvania in recent years has ended in a foul and the offender had his license revoked.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

Which was laid upon the table.

VETO OF SENATE BILL NO. 221

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, May 21, 1931.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 221, Printer's No. 137, entitled, "An act fixing and regulating the fees commissions mileage and other costs chargeable by sheriffs for their official acts and the services of their deputies watchmen appraisers and other help requiring prepayment of same unless secured or chargeable to the county and delivery of itemized receipts therefor authorizing certain payments by the counties in lieu of mileage providing for the taxation and collection of fees commissions mileage and other codes requiring salaried sheriffs to account for certain fees commissions and mileage and repealing inconsistent laws general special or local."

This bill is a general fee bill for sheriffs in all counties of the Commonwealth. I am in sympathy with its purpose to provide by legislation uniform fees for all sheriffs. Nevertheless, I am compelled to withhold my approval from this measure for a number of reasons.

This bill not only originated in Philadelphia. It was made to order for Philadelphia. This is shown by the attempt to increase the charge for clerk hire from $2.00 per day to $2.00 for each sale of real estate. In Philadelphia as many as 1400 sheriff's sales of real estate take place in a month. The bill, therefore, would increase the sheriff's fees by nearly $3,000.00 per month, or almost $36,000.00 per year in this one item alone.

I will not countenance any effort to collect such exhorbitant fees from the public. In these trying times especially, property owners ought to be protected against such gouging.

I object vigorously to the provision for the payment of compensation and expenses of special deputy sheriffs appointed at the request of private corporations. Any legislation which gives legal sanction to what has been proved in the past to be a private and oppressive police force to guard the property of private corporations in time of strike is vicious. The appellate courts of this State have held that a sheriff is not legally required to furnish special deputies for the protection of private property, and that it is outside of his official duties to do so. I decline to approve any legislation which even indirectly sanctions the pernicious practice of using deputy sheriffs for strike-breaking purposes.

This bill is objectionable also because its title does not give notice that the sheriff is required to bring actions of mandamus against all other county officers to enforce payment of the compensation and expenses of his special deputies, a practice which in itself is indefensible.

There are several other provisions which have for their purpose the increase of fees, and which would, therefore, work a hardship upon litigants.

The foregoing objections to this bill and others were presented to the representative of the State Sheriffs' Association while there was still time to correct them. His demand that not a line should be changed now forces me to veto the bill.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. BALDWIN, from the Committee on Executive Nominations, reported with favorable recommendation the following nomination:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, January 6, 1931.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

In conformity with law, I have the honor to nominate for the advice and consent of the Senate the following:

MEMBER OF THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Samuel Walker, Butler, from July 1, 1929, for the term of ten years.

JOHN S. FISHER.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, as Chairman of the Committee on Executive Nominations, I desire to inform you that on May 13th, 1931, I received a letter from Honorable James S. Benn, of Philadelphia, asking that your committee no longer consider his nomination as Public Service Commissioner of Pennsylvania for the term of ten years, dating from July 1st, 1930, which was messaged to the Senate by Honorable John S. Fisher, on January 6, 1931. I desire to present the letter of Mr. Benn to the Senate, and also a copy of the letter Mr. Benn sent to the Governor.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION of the
COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Harrisburg, May 13, 1931.

Hon. Frank E. Baldwin,
Chairman, Senate Committee on Executive Nominations.

Dear Senator Baldwin:

Enclosed find copy of letter which I have today addressed to Governor Pinchot, and which I hereby transmit to the Senate Committee on Executive Nominations in order that the Committee may be advised that I have resigned the nomination for appointment as Public Service Commisioner for the term beginning July 1, 1930.

During the past year or eighteen months the present Executive has made regulatory law in Pennsylvania the football of politics. To keep kicking this football in the air for another year or more to come, it is the declared intention of the Executive to call a special session of the Legislature in 1932.

This makes it quite evident that administration of the Public Service Company Law in Pennsylvania is for a further indefinite period to be subjected to misrepresentation and the exigencies of politics. Under these circumstances, and particularly in view of the personal antipathies which characterize the Governor's campaign, I feel that it would be unjust to the Commission, and to the Senate, to permit my nomination to remain as a factor in the situation.

Allow me to express my deep appreciation of the assurances of support which members of the Committee have given to my nomination. But I feel that the removal of any possible excuse for personal acrimonies or animosities is at this juncture much more important than any gratification that I, as an individual, might receive from a favorable recommendation upon my nomination.

Believe me to be
Sincerely yours,

JOHN S. BENN.

Harrisburg, May 13, 1931.

Governor Gifford Pinchot,
Executive Office,
Harrisburg, Pa.

Dear Sir:

I hereby resign as a member of the Public Service Commission for the term beginning July 1, 1930, to take effect as of this date, and have written a communication to the Senate Committee on Executive Nominations apprising the Committee of my resignation.

Yours truly,

JAMES S. BENN.

Mr. President, in submitting these communications I desire to say that it was a real disappointment to me that I was not permitted to vote for the nomination of James S. Benn, as I considered him one of the best Public Service Commissioners the State ever had. He was experienced, courageous, honest, and had all of the qualifications of a good Public Service Commissioner; and I appreciate fully the motives that prompted former Governor Fisher to renominate Mr. Benn for this ten-year term, while Mr. Benn was at the same time telling the Governor that he would sooner be excused from the further duties of the office.

Our State, it seems to me, is in need of men of the fitness and ability and integrity of Mr. Benn. We need them perhaps as much at this time as at any other we have ever shown. We need men of experience, rather than those of inexperience and, perhaps, of visionary views, of which there are many.

I can only hope that our present Governor of Pennsylvania, when it shall become his duty to name Public Service Commissioners,—and the Governors who shall follow him, will be so fortunate as to name men who are as well qualified for the position as is Mr. Benn. I do not think that it will be an especially easy task.

Mr. FAY. Mr. President, I would like to go on record as supporting what the Senator from Potter, Mr. Baldwin, has said; and if I had had an opportunity I should have voted for Mr. Benn.

Mr. EARNEST. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Potter, Mr. Baldwin.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Potter, Mr. Baldwin, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, certainly.

Mr. EARNEST. Mr. President, I understood the Senator from Potter, Mr. Baldwin, to say that when it becomes the duty of the Governor to name a Public Service Commissioner he hopes the Commissioner named will be of a certain kind and character. I would like to ask the Senator from Potter, Mr. Baldwin, whether, according to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, it is not the duty of the Governor of the Commonwealth to name a Public Service Commissioner, when there is a vacancy during the session, at that session.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I think that the Constitution provides that he shall be appointed during the session. The Constitution, of course, speaks for itself.

Mr. EARNEST. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Potter, Mr. Baldwin, whether the Constitution does not provide that a vacancy occurring during the session should be filled by the Governor,—not only on the Public Service Commission but also on the Supreme Bench.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, as I understand the wording of the Constitution it provides those very things. If it be of interest to the Senate, as to the filling of vacancies in courts of record, Article V, Section 25, provides: "Any vacancy happening by death, resignation or otherwise, in any court of record, shall be filled by appointment by the Governor, to continue till the first Monday of January next succeeding the first general election, which shall occur three or more months after the happening of such vacancy."

In Article IV, Section 8, of the Constitution, it provides: "He shall nominate and, by and with the advice and consent of two-thirds of all the members of the Senate, appoint a Secretary of the Commonwealth and an Attorney General during pleasure, a Superintendent of Public Instruction for four years, and such other officers of the Commonwealth as he is or may be authorized by the Constitution or by law to appoint; he shall have power to fill all vacancies that may happen, in offices to which he may appoint, during the recess of the Senate, by granting commissions which shall expire at the end of their next session; he shall have power to fill any vacancy that may happen, during the recess of the Senate, in the office of the Auditor General, State Treasurer, Secretary of Internal Affairs or Superintendent of Public Instruction, in a judicial office, or in any other elective office which he is or may be authorized to fill; if the vacancy shall happen during the session of the Senate, the Governor shall nominate to the Senate, before their final adjournment, a proper person to fill said vacancy; but in any such case of vacancy, in an elective office, a person shall be chosen to said office on the next election day appropriate to such office according to the provisions of this Constitution, unless the vacancy shall happen within two calendar months immediately preceding such election day, in which case the election for said office shall be held on the second succeeding election day appropriate to such office. In acting on executive nominations the Senate shall sit with open doors, and, in confirming or rejecting the nominations of the Governor, the vote shall be taken by yeas and nays and shall be entered on the Journal."

Mr. EARNEST. Mr. President, I should like to ask the Chairman of the Committee on Executive Nominations, Mr. Baldwin, whether or not the Governor has nominated a man to succeed James S. Benn as Public Service Commissioner, and whether the Governor has named any one as Justice of the Supreme Court.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, the Committee on Executive Nominations has received no such nominations thus far.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, it is said that those who live in glass houses should not throw stones, and I cannot help rising, through a sense of fairness, to say that while the Governor may be guilty in this respect, we, ourselves, are not blameless, as we expect to have no legislative apportionment at this session; but the sum and substance is, what is the Constitution among friends?

Mr. EARNEST. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, permit himself to be interrogated?

Dr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, certainly.

Mr. EARNEST. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Philadelphia, Dr. Woodward, whether or not he knows that there has or has not been a Legislative Apportionment Bill presented in the House of Representatives.

Dr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, there are too many of them. That is the trouble. There is not time for both legislative action and executive action.

EXECUTIVE SESSION

By unanimous consent,

A motion was made by Mr. BALDWIN

In the Senate, May 25, 1931.

Whereas, by the Act of April 18, 1929, provision was made for referendums to ascertain the will of electors of counties and municipalities with respect to the installation of voting machines, and

Whereas, in a number of counties and municipalities the electors, to prevent fraud at elections and to protect the sacredness of citizenship through the ballot, voted in favor of the installation of voting machines, and

Whereas, notwithstanding such favorable referendums, there has been a failure in many places to install these machines due to postponements, subterfuges and legal entanglements, apparently instigated by competing companies, and

Whereas, charges are being publicly made that certain companies are not equipped to fulfill their contracts calling for the delivery of voting machines at certain dates, and

Whereas, charges have been made that public officials are financially interested in various voting machine companies, and that State and municipal employes are being employed as agents and emissaries of these companies, and

Whereas, it is to the best interests of the people of the Commonwealth that the facts be fully ascertained and made public, therefore be it

Resolved, That the President Pro Tempore of the Senate is hereby authorized to appoint a senatorial committee composed of five members of the Senate whose duty it shall be to thoroughly inquire into, investigate and study the charges made with respect to the installation of voting machines, the names of the companies manufacturing or supplying such machines, their officers, agents and emissaries, the facilities of such companies to fulfill their contracts, the methods and means employed in securing and letting contracts for voting machines, the reasons for the delay in purchasing and using machines, the reasons and causes lying back of the various legal proceedings to enjoin the purchase of voting machines, and any and all facts in connection therewith, and to take the testimony of such persons and to inquire into and study such books, papers, documents and records as may be deemed necessary in order that said committee may be enabled thereby to make a comprehensive report to the next session of the Senate, and to the Secretary of the Commonwealth, with their recommendations.

Resolved, That said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of any of its members, requiring and commanding any person or persons to appear before it and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee, and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person, and shall have the same force and effect as subpoenas issuing out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of the Committee shall have power to administer oaths or affirmations to witnesses appearing before it. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to appear and testify before said committee, or to produce any books, papers, records and documents, shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of this Commonwealth provided for in such cases.

NAYS—0

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

RECONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL No. 1172 (HOUSE BILL No. 1366).

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President I move that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of Senate Bill No. 1172 (House Bill No. 1366), entitled:

An Act regulating the sale, transfer and possession of certain firearms, prescribing penalties, procedure and rules of evidence, and to make uniform the law with reference thereto known as the Firearms Bill.

Mr. FREEMAN. Mr President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I have no desire to take up any great deal of time of the Senate tonight, during the last week of the session, discussing this bill; but I do feel that it is important enough to have before the Senate what this bill means.

This bill has been before this Legislature, to my own knowledge, for approximately twenty years. It has been in different forms. It has been an impossible and an unthinkable bill at some sessions of the Legislature, and has been amended from time to time; but it still remains a Firearms Bill and a dangerous one at that.

Mr. President, if I thought for one moment that this bill would reduce banditry or any other form of crime in the State of Pennsylvania I would be the first one to vote for it; but I want to point out to this Senate and to the people of this Commonwealth that in my judgment it will do just the opposite from what I have just said.

Mr. President, they talk about banditry and keeping guns away from bandits. Of course, we are all for that proposition, but if you will read this bill you will find that it will be an aid to bandits instead of having a deterrent effect. If the bandits in your community or mine want to know where they can find an unarmed citizen, all they have to do is to go to the public records and find out who has a license to have firearms; and they will naturally keep away from that citizen. And, on the other hand, they will be able to find out who is unarmed, and they will then be in a position to prey upon citizens who are unarmed. And I want to say that this is just one more regulation, one more task for the people back in the country to attend to—making criminals out of them if they neglect to do what this bill prescribes they shall do. We are already licensed and regulated until it is impossible for us to comply with all of them. It is just one more burden, one more thing to do to keep from the criminal class ourselves.

Mr. President, it seems to me that we should stop, look and listen. This bill was defeated once in the House, and was resurrected and passed there. It was definitely defeated in this Senate, but apparently there has been a little whispering around in the Senate, and I realize they have the goods and will pass it; yet I shall be very glad for the opportunity to cast my vote against this bill and I want to serve notice on the other Senators that the time will come that their vote will haunt them if they vote for this bill.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, it has been my fortune, or misfortune, to be associated with this bill for two or three sessions. It passed the Senate last session and was defeated in the House. This time it took the reverse order, and was passed in the House and tied up in the Senate.

This bill has the backing of the Attorney General of Pennsylvania, and I believe that his judgment on this matter is quite as good as my judgment or that of the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman.

This bill has the backing of the District Attorney of Philadelphia; and, after all, Philadelphia is a large-sized city, and has a large population, and the District Attorney of that city ought to know what it is all about.

This bill has the backing of the former District Attorney of the City of Philadlphia, Mr. Fox. This bill has the backing of the Police Chiefs' Association of Pennsylvania. This bill has the backing of the District Attorneys' Association of Pennsylvania. So that the bill is backed by all the men in the State of Pennsylvania whose duty it is to enforce the law. There may be a possibility that there is a mistake or two in this bill; but if there is, that can be corrected.

Now I want to take occasion to go a little off the course as to talking on this bill, but eventually it will come back to the bill. Last Tuesday I presented to this Senate a bill in which I asked that Philadelphia be annexed to and be made a part of the State of Pennsylvania, and when I presented that bill a number of our Senators here snickered and thought that it was a bluff or sarcasm or something I had against the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. In that they were entirely mistaken. It was a message by the citizens of Philadelphia to our fellow-citizens throughout Pennsylvania—not to the Governor of Pennsylvania but to all the citizens of the State of Pennsylvania—that we in Philadelphia are proud of the fact that we are Philadelphians but nowhere do we travel on God's earth, where we are asked the question, "From where do you hail?" that we say aught else than "From Pennsylvania". We are Pennsylvanians, and we love our State; and we want to be a part and a parcel of the greatest State in all the world—and that State is Pennsylvania. And we want you country Senators to take back to your constituents the thought that we, the citizens of Philadelphia, want to be your brothers; we do not want you to think that we are made of any other material than a good Pennsylvanian is made of; and we are going to be your brothers whether you like it or not.

Only last Monday, when the people of Philadelphia in large numbers asked to be allowed to play ball on Sunday, you gentlemen flaunted in our faces "Remember the Sabbath, to keep it holy." Down in Philadelphia they want to remember the Sabbath, to keep it holy; and in the Committee on Law and Order, for the first time in all my legislative experience of twenty years, I voted to amend the Act of 1794; never before since I have been a member of this Senate have I voted so—and I did it because 90% of the people in Philadelphia felt that this law should be amended.

This present bill asks you not to break another commandment—a much stronger commandment than "Remember the Sabbath, to keep it holy"—and asks you to help uphold the law, to help those who are charged with the enforcement of the law, to keep sacred that commandment which says "Thou shalt not kill! Thou shalt not kill!" That commandment is the strongest commandment of the ten; and when you vote against this bill you are placing in the hands of the criminals the opportunity to do what God Almighty tells you not to do, when He says "Thou shalt not kill!" And although it may exact a little inconvenience for you to get a license and pay 50c in five years, and though a condition may arise under which someone in your district may forget to obey the law, that is no reason for not having such a law.

Then we have another organization. The sportsmen do not want it! What constitutes sport? I never knew a man who was selfish, who looked solely to his own interests, who wanted to avoid inconvenience to himself, that he did not excuse himself in the name of sport. But there are sportsmen and sportsmen. In my opinion, the real sportsman is one who tries to do something for his fellowmen, not one who pretends to be a sportsman, and, in order to avoid a little inconvenience, such as is contemplated in this bill, tells you it will interfere with sport. He is no sportsman. He is just a selfish individual who has more interest in shooting a rabbit that he does not really want than in saving human life; and I say, the man who votes against this bill is voting against the sixth commandment, which says, "Thou shalt not kill!" And that man, if a murder is committed, is responsible for that murder, if this bill does not pass.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I understand that this bill will not be killed—that we have 26 votes; but I might get one more by calling attention to the thought that we ought to have reciprocity with our sister States, and when New York State has a law similar to that contemplated by this bill it is the duty of Pennsylvania, I think, to reciprocate and establish a license on the selling of firearms. We might get one more vote on that argument.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, as I said, I do not want to prolong this discussion, but after all this talk by the Senator from Philadelphia I am surprised to learn from him that he is willing to admit us into the "Band of Brothers" of citizens of Pennsylvania. I thought that pleasure and privilege was reserved for the citizens of Philadelphia.

Mr. President, there is nothing in this bill to stop a murder or to stop a crime of any kind. As I said before, it will not disarm the criminal. It will not stop banditry. It will not stop murder. It will add to that, rather than detract from it, in my judgment, and I have made a study of this bill for a great many sessions.

Mr. President, let me call your attention to this: That unless and until there is a federal law regulating the traffic in firearms all that you or I or any other person has to do to get a revolver would be to send to Sears-Roebuck or some other similar house in Chicago or some other city and the firearms will come to us by mail, and this bill will not stop it. What is the use of talking about "Thou shalt not kill"? What has that to do with this bill? Nothing! Nothing in the world! I do not know what the motive is back of it. I hope it is a proper motive. I am inclined to think it is. But it is a misguided motive. It is a shame and an outrage to inflict and foist upon the people of the State a bill of this sort. We are already so well regulated that we have to have a license to hunt and to fish, to drive an automobile, to keep a dog—and one of the Senators proposed the other night that we ought to have a license to keep a cat! And now, Mr. President, it is proposed that we have to have a license to possess a revolver for our own protection if we go outside of our own home.

Mr. President, in my own district, within a week or two, there was a bank robbery, a hold-up, and at a bank meeting—I happen to be a director of that bank—a week or two ago the cashier of that bank, who foiled that hold-up—for when he was confronted with a gun he drew his own gun and asked an assistant to ring the burglar alarm, and the burglar fled—that bank cashier came to me and with tears in his eyes asked me not to vote for this bill, he asked me not to make it harder for the citizens of this Commonwealth to arm themselves against bandits.

That is what this bill means, and I hope the Senators will vote this bill down.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. Presiedent, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. Presiedent, I would like to ask the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, if he is not responsible for a bill compelling the people of Pennsylvania to be licensed to nurse corns, known as the Chiropody Bill?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, not yet.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, but when it is signed?

Mr. BUCKMAN. That will be up to the Governor of the Commonwealth.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1273, entitled:

An Act authorizing cities of the first class to negotiate emergency loans for unemployment relief during the present calendar year.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, this bill enables the City of Philadelphia to negotiate a loan of three million dollars for the purpose of helping the unemployed.

It was some time during last November that the Committee of One Hundred on Unemployment Relief met at the Bellevue-Stratford to devise ways and means of meeting the tragic effects of the unemployment situation in our midst. Two hundred of our most representative men and women were at the luncheon-conference. So pitiful and so pathetic were the stories of poverty and distress that the chairman, Dr. Jacob Billikopf, was instructed to appoint a committee which would raise funds for the care of thousands of homeless men and women, some ten or twelve thousand children who came to school every morning without breakfast, and which would provide shelter, food and clothing for the thousands of families whom the private relief organizations in our city were compelled to turn away from their doors on accout of lack of funds.

The upshot of that historic meeting was the creation of the Committee on Unemployment Relief, headed by one of the most distinguished financiers in the country, Mr. Horatio Gates Lloyd, a member of the firm of Drexel and Company. Ever since November 7th last Mr. Lloyd and those associated intimately with him have thrown themselves into this task with extraordinary zeal, energy and devotion. Nearly $4,000,000 has been raised, half as much as was obtained in New York City for a similiar enterprise. The sum represents the largest amount ever secured in Philadelphia for relief-giving purposes. But so great have been the needs among the more than 200,000 people out of employment that within a day or two the entire fund secured by the Lloyd committee will have been exhausted. Private philanthropy is no longer able to cope with this situation.

Last week one of the important relief organizations in order to obtain a picture of the applicants.

In the first fifty families so studied the average time each bread winner had been out of work was five and a half months. One family, with five children, was dispossessed from the house after selling all their furniture. Another family, of six, had only three chairs left and no table, so they are standing up. A third family, with three small children, lived in one room and slept in one bed. In another household, of eight persons, the entire family lived in a single room and slept in one double bed and one cot.

Need I harrow your feelings any longer by a recital of some of the tragic things that are happening as a result of the unemployment crisis? To meet, therefore, the needs of nearly 30,000 families in my community who, through circumstances over which they have no control, find themselves in so lamentable a position, I, therefore, Mr. President, appeal to the Senate of Pennsylvania to pass this bill to-night.

It has been charged that the Republican organization plays politics with human misery. This we emphatically deny, and in proof we submit to the Senate this bill drawn exactly in the form requested by His Excellency, the Governor. We, therefore, hope it will meet with his complete approval. The Republican organization of Philadelphia is founded upon goodwill, love and charity to its neighbors, and while we will play politics with such slick politicans as Governor Pinchot and Senator Grundy, we do not play politics with human misery.

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, I ask the Senate to pass this bill to-night. After what the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Aron, has said, I think that I should also vote for this bill; but I am doing that with a great deal of reluctance, and as my mind takes me back to four years ago, when I was picked out of obscurity and raised to a position in this distinguished body, I remember that I came of an old-fashioned family, an old-fashioned mother and father, who taught me, in my youth, that my word was my bond. And after my election to the Senate, in the fall of 1926, I felt extremely proud, full of joy and elation to think that I was going to come here and mix and mingle with the makers of the history of Pennsylvania. And then I received my first shock! One of the members of the House, from Philadelphia, said to me, "Do not trust Governor Pinchot unless you have it in writing. He had broken a solemn obligation, given to me for a service rendered."

I could not believe this, because my slight political contact with the leaders of Philadelphia and the leaders of the State led me to know that their power and their influence came from the honor in which they held their given word. Therefore, you can imagine the horror and sinking of my heart,—an ideal shattered. I thought to myself, "Could it be possible that one who had been elevated to the Governorship of a State like the State of Pennsylvania could disregard a pledge given and word passed?" And I said, "No, it cannot be so. I do not believe it. This member of the Legislature was mistaken, or had been guilty of a deliberate falsehood." And again my spirits rose, and with all the pride of a young man coming into political life I went through the preliminaries of being made a Senator of this great State. Then, with my head in the clouds, I went with my associates from this body to the joint session of the Assembly, held on January 4th, 1927, to hear the farewell message of the present Governor, who was then retiring from office,—a Republican Governor of a rock-ribbed Republican State, elected by the Republican organization of the entire State; and I sat, first in amazement, then with my head bowed in shame, to think that any man in his sane senses could broadcast such a tirade of abuse of our leaders, particularly of Allegheny, Lackawanna and Philadelphia counties. Where was his pride, his honor, his sense of manhood and fair play?

Then my feelings gave way to anger, and I was sorely tempted to raise in my seat and say to my associates, "Come,—this is no place for red-blooded men; let us leave him to himself." I felt that he had spoken the truth years ago when he said, "I am done with the Republican Party." Then saner judgment conquered, and to myself I said, "You had better sit quiet. Such action would probably please him. Let him go on. We will soon be through with him forever."

But the memory of man is short and he came back to us in the Spring of 1930,—bigger and braver and bolder and more brazen than ever; and as he stumped the State I wondered what type of superman he was,—a promise for every vote, a cure for every ill, a job for every one out of employment, a remedy for every evil; and I wondered "Can he and will he keep all of these pledges given for votes?"—one of which was almost on the borderland of bribery.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Seator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, will state his point of order.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I call your attention to Rule 3 of the Senate, which provides, "It shall be the duty of the President to preserve order, prevent personal reflections, confine members in debate to the question," and so forth. My point of order is that the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Frazier, has not the right to indulge in personal reflections.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Frazier, will refrain from personal reflections.

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, I want to direct the Senate's atention to some of the pledges which were given during the campaign, and which are all broken. One was, an elective Fair Rate Board, from seven districts. An elective Board was not even attempted. Another was, an assurance to the unemployed that a job could be, would be and must be supplied to all. This was not complied with. Another, a promise to labor of a conference on the Coal and Iron Police Bill.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, will state his point of order.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Frazier, must confine his remarks to the bill under discussion. I ask that my point of order be ruled upon.

The PRESIDENT. The point of order of the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, is well taken.

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, I rise, then, to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Frazier, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, a promise to labor of a conference on the Coal and Iron Police Bill of the Administration before its introduction, and a bill satisfactory to labor. This promise, I am told, was broken. I know the bill was defeated in the "Governor's" House. A promise of at least $6.00 to every automobilist who would vote for him,—almost the buying of votes: $1.00 saving on each owner's license. I am told the bills were introduced contrary to his orders, and defeated under his orders by those in the House subservient to their "Master's Voice."

Then the climax—

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order. The gentleman is speaking on personal privilege, but there is a motion before the house on a bill, and he is not speaking on the bill itself.

The PRESIDENT. The point is well taken.

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, I regret very much that the Governor can say what he pleases, when he pleases, how he pleases, and his friends in the Senate do not want to hear what I think about him.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I would like to speak for about three minutes on the bill. There is another side to this question, of course. In the first place, it is an example of the policy of Home Rule, the popular policy of Home Rule. We are asking our voters from all over the State to give us Home Rule, and it appears that we do not know what to do with this Home Rule when we get it,—because it is a very unsatisfactory way to treat unemployment.

The bankers came to Philadelphia and after due course they almost succeeded in getting $3,000,000 for the unemployed. They were not tax-payers and are not tax-payers of Philadelphia, and it comes with very poor grace from any man who is not a tax-payer in Philadelphia to ask us to put up this money. The man who wants the tune certainly ought to pay the piper.

In the third place, some of you may have read THE LEGISLATOR on "The Forgotten Man". I have a neighbor who owns his property. He does not ask any favors. He pays his bills. He and his wife live on $10.00 a week. Now then, of course he has to pay his share of this $3,000,000 to cure this evil of unemployment,—when he, himself, is economizing and doing the very best he can, and asking no favors. He is "The Forgotten Man." Unfortunately I have to vote for the bill.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution and were as follows, viz:

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Frazier, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, this bill, which the Senate has just passed, came as the result of a promise made to a committee of outstanding citizens of Philadelphia to sign a bill increasing our borrowing capacity temporarily by $6,000,000. I am not going to outline in detail that which you all know; suffice it to say that this promise was no sooner given than our Deputy Controller, S. Davis Wilson, whispered something into His Excellency's ear—no one knows what, but rumor has it that the Governor was told he could further advance his candidacy for President of the United States by a breach of faith to the public-spirited citizens of Phialdelphia. However, another broken pledge! The bill was vetoed, while a Committee of One Hundred representative citizens of Philadelphia was being formed to wait upon him to ask him to approve it.

I wish that our beloved, murdered President, Abraham Lincoln,— held in our hearts only second to George Washington— were alive today, to tell us and His Excellency that which he once said, "You can fool all of the people some of the time, and you can fool some of the people all of the time, but you cannot fool all of the people all of the time."

Was it any wonder, then, that I had some doubts about the wisdom of voting for this bill? The Governor has said, "Pass this $3,000,000 bill for unemployment and then pass the bill which you very seriously need for $3,000,000 for the firemen and policemen, who will become unemployed in another month, and then give me thirty days to study it, and if I find that you need it I will give it to you." I wonder if he will ever surmount that "if"?

In his reason, given to the public press, for his veto of the Sheriff's Fee Bill I now, with absolutely no interest in this bill, charge him with wilfully and maliciously distorting the facts or of woful incompetence and lack of teamwork. He knew, or should have known, the facts about this bill, for his representative was informed thereon. If he did not know, he knows now; and it would seem to me that a public apology to the Sheriff of Philadelphia is now in order.

Or maybe his action on the McClure Boxing Bill portrays his mental attitude. I understand many a fighter hits below the belt in time of stress. The Governor's veto of this bill should give us pause for thought. Maybe the Governor is wedded to foul fighting.

However, I have voted "aye" on this bill, and I hope that the Governor may surmount his "if." I only regret, in going home shortly, that I am going to leave these fine friends and associates that I have made in the Senate of Pennsylvania and in the Legislature; and yet I go with some measure of joy, because I am going to get away from "I" and "me", "my" and "mine", "I want this" and " I want that," "My plans are this" and "My plans are that." A session ruined by one man's ego!

In conclusion let me say "Whom the gods would destroy they first make mad."

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 693 (House Bill No. 545), on third reading, entitled:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to article eight, section one of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

be recommitted to the Committee on Elections.

Mr. BOWERS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I would like to make an explanation about this bill, Senate Bill No. 693, House Bill No. 545. This bill proposes an amendment to the Constitution with reference to tax qualifications for the purpose of voting. It passed the Legislature in the session of 1929, and if it passes at this session it will be submitted to the voters at the election of 1933. If it should not be passed at this session of the Legislature it will then have to be submitted to two more sessions of the Legislature before it can again be submitted to the voters.

This amendment has been suggested by authority of the Elections Law Commission appointed under an Act of the General Assembly passed in 1927. It seems also to be approved by certain reform organizations, and I am told that the organizations of certain of the cities are in favor of it. So I presume that the House and the Senate will vote "aye" in regard to this bill. But, having said that, I wish to define my own position in regard to this bill.

I, personally, am opposed to it as a step in the wrong direction. I think that the imposition of a tax for a function of government, that of voting, is justified, the same as for any other act of government. I think that no one has a right to vote if he is unwilling to pay a tax. At any rate, I do not want to, and I am, personally, not willing to extend the high privilege of voting to anyone who is not willing pay such a tax.

However, I hope that the Senators, on this bill, will vote according to their own sentiments, so that the Elections Committee will not be charged with having smothered it in committee.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, this legislation passed at the last session. I think that the tax receipt is one of the worst things in the game of politics. It is used against the independent voter. In our county it is necessary to present yourself in person to pay your poll tax. They have so ruled there that an order, your signed order, does not permit anyone to pay this tax for you. Thousands and thousands of people are disfranchised because of the fact that they have to pay a poll tax. This tax is assessed every year, and, as we all know, you are only required to pay a poll tax every two years. A voter not owning property pays his poll tax this year, escapes the payment of the next year and can still vote. The cost of assessing and the cost of collection of this poll tax is greater than the revenue derived.

Thousands and thousands of people are disfranchised, and particularly the working people, who are unable to, cannot afford to miss a day's work to go to the courthouse to pay this tax; and the rule, and the law, if strictly enforced, as I said before, prohibits a man from having anyone act as his agent; even a signed order by the voter does not permit the county treasurer to issue this tax receipt.

This matter will have to go before the people of the State, after having been passed by two sessions, and it is my opinion that the members of this Senate should let the people of this State decide this question, and I urge the members of this Senate to vote for this legislation, placing it on the ballot, where the people of Pennsylvania will have the right to decide; and I want to take issue with the Senator from Somerset, Mr. Ealy, in saying that this bill was recommended favorably by only a minority of the Committee on Elections. We had several meetings. It was discussed several times. It was on the calendar and sent back. It was then voted on again, and in the committee meeting Senator Ealy's was the only vote against it, every other vote was cast for it; and I urge the members of the Senate to vote for it.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, has misunderstood me. I made no reference to the action of the Senate Committee on this bill.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, this poll tax is, so far as the big cities are concerned, is a "poor man's burden"; and it is an annoyance to the farmer. For once, at least, in my life I am going to stick upon the side of the Pennsylvania farmer; I do not want to see him annoyed.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Harris and Mr. Buckman and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—12

Baldwin,	Ealy,	Freeman,	Rial,
Bell,	Earnest,	Gelder,	Scott,
Daix,	Fay,	Krause,	Weingartner,

NAYS—35

Boyd,	Harvey,	Painter,	Trainer,
Brandt,	Homsher,	Parkinson,	Williamson,
Buckman,	Howell,	Pethick,	Woodward,
Chapman,	Hunsicker,	Prince,

So the question was determined in the negative.
